THE NAME "UPSHAW"

Lenora Higginbotham Sweeney, in her sketch of "The Upshaw Family of Essex," relates the following: "The name Upshaw may possibly have been derived from the hamlet of Upshire in the Parish of Waltham, County of Essex, England."

Bishop Meade, "Old Churches, and Ministers and Families of Virginia", (Vol. 2; p. 429) mentions the Upshaw family as one of the leading families in eastern Virginia in Colonial times and after the Revolution.

We have found branches of the progenitor William Upshaw, living in Essex, Amherst and Buckingham Counties, Virginia. One son LeRoy, migrated to Elbert County, Georgia and was living there in 1791. It is likely that Drury Upshaw, who was the progenitor of the Douglas County, Missouri, Upshaws, spent some time in Georgia, as census records reveal one child born in Georgia. The old Greene County History (1883) (p. 896), states that Drury Upshaw settled on a place called "Upshur Prairie" in 1830 on a section of land which now lies in Webster County, Missouri. According to Census records we find Drury's eldest child born in North Carolina, several born in Tennessee, one in Georgia and one in Illinois. Family names tie in with the old Upshaw family of Virginia. For further light on the early Upshaw lines we recommend study of Sweeney's Sketch found in William and Mary Historical Magazine, (Vol. 18; pages 64 to 109).

UPSHAW

See WOODS FAMILY for her descendants).

Descendants of DRURY UPSHAW. All of the following lineage has been worked from the information given in "A Reminiscent History of the Ozark Region," pages 757 - 58, by Goodspeed Brothers of Chicago; published in 1894. Also from information obtained from Mrs. Viola Farmer Upshaw of Mountain Grove, Mo.; Census Records; Tombstone Inscriptions and family records.

Material compiled by Mrs. Nolan Downing Pulliam (daughter of Bessie Janet Woods Selleck, 416 Dimm St., Richmond, California).

In numbering the following persons in the lineage, we have given the first one (DRURY UPSHAW) the number 100. His children, or the second generation, begins with the number 200. The third generation, or his grand-children, begin with the number 300; the fourth generation, 400 and so forth. Thus the reader may trace back to the common ancestor and know by the number preceeding the name of each, to which generation the individual belongs.

100 — DRURY UPSHAW (1); born 1767 in South Carolina or Virginia. We have no further information for him, except that he had a son:

200 — DRURY UPSHAW (2); born 1787 in Virginia (1880) Census); died 1846 in Douglas County, Missouri, and is buried in the Denlow Cemetery in the south-east corner, next to his wife. There is no monument but a stone wall around both graves. He married FRANKIE PARNUE (there is some doubt about the spelling of the last name. It could be "Parmele" or "Parmely"). She was born in North Carolina (Census record) and died 1861 in Crawford County, Missouri. Her son, John Sevier Upshaw brought her body back to Douglas County and buried it beside that of his father. In the 1860 census returns of Falling Springs, FRANKIE is listed at "FRANCIS" living with John Sevier and Jane Upshaw. The children of DRURY 2 and FRANKIE were:

300 — CYNTHIA UPSHAW, born 1810 in South Carolina; died about 1860; buried in the south-east corner of Denlow Cemetery. No marker at the head of her grave, just a huge rock. She married first, DAVIS FIELDS. He is buried in Denlow beside Cynthia.

She married second, WILLIAM GARNER. There were no children.

301.— (CAPTAIN) JOHN SEVIER UPSHAW, born May 28, 1813 in Tennessee; died Jan. 20, 1911; buried in Denlow Cemetery in the south-east corner. He was a Captain of the Home Guards of Douglas County during the Civil War. He was pensioned on Jan. 22, 1903 by a special act of Congress. There is a marker at his grave. He married, in Springfield, Mo., in 1833, JANE WOODS (daughter of Isaac Woods of Greene County, Mo., who settled in Springfield in 1831. See No. 200 WOODS).. She was born in 1814 in Tennessee; died 1897, and is buried in Denlow Cemetery by the side of her husband. There is no marker. Their children were:

400 — SARAH UPSHAW, died young.

401 — WILLIAM UPSHAW; died young.

402 — ELETNA UPSHAW; born 1841; married ZACK WELLS, SR. She died without issue. After her death, he married MARY BEARCE and had ZACK, JR., born during the Civil War. ZACK, SR., died in Arkansas during the Civil War, serving with the Confederates, and never saw his son, ZACK, JR.

403 — ELIZABETH UPSHAW; died young.

Five other children died in infancy, Nos. 404; 405; 406; 407; and 408.

302 — REBECCA ELIZABETH UPSHAW (Drury 2; 1); born 1816 in Tennessee; married JAMES WOODS of Greene County. (See No. 201 WOODS FAMILY for her children).

303 — WILLIAM UPSHAW (Drury 2; 1), born 1818, in Georgia. (The sketch in "A Reminiscent History of the Ozark Region", says he died in 1849 This is incorrect, as he is listed in the 1850 Census Records — see herein). He married NICEY WESTON? or SWEETON? in Crawford County, Missouri. She was born in Illinois in 1829. Their children were:

409 — MARY ANN UPSHAW, born 1845 in Missouri.

MARY FRANCIS (WOOTEN) UPSHAW, second wife of John, was born in White County, Illinois in 1826 and married JOHN UPSHAW in 1879.

She lived most of her life in the vicinity of Denlow. She recalls weaving all their own materials for clothing. All of the cotton and wool was raised on their own farm. Her father's death occurred during the Civil War. Her mother's maiden name was Lina Fowler. Her mother married SAM TAYLOR who was appointed guardian of MARY FRANCES. Her step-father made all the shoes and used wooden pegs for nails in the soles. He tanned all his own leather. Squirrel hide was used for shoe laces. Money never bothered her family. She can remember her step-father making twenty-five cents a day, splitting rails.

Mary Frances says that fresh air and sunshine has kept her young. She cans hundreds of quarts of fruits and vegetables each year and does her own washing and ironing at the age of 86 years. She said, "I've lived here so long that even the birds and squirrels know me. When I go away from here on a visit I am just like a chicken on a hot rock — anxious to get back home".
